BREED THEATRE.

Again today and Saturday the Breed will present a banner double feature bill. The first being Ann Pennington, known danseuse of the Ziegfeld Folies in her latest Paramount photoplay, "Sunshine Sam." The story tells of an ambitious little slum girl who rises to become the wife of a successful inventor. There are tremendous obstacles in the way of the transformation, however, such as being accused of crime she never committed, and fighting her way up afterwards as an office girl and stenographer; but she turns all this to good account and lends a helping hand to many of her old friends. It is a thrilling story from beginning to end and it abounds in queer types of humanity which are portrayed by clever artists. Monroe Salisbury in the five-part Bluebird photoplay, "The Eagle," is the second feature of this bill. This is a thrilling western drama back of which rests a great idea. It confronts a situation where the law offers no redress yet, even he, strong man that he is, and right as he is, cannot rise above the law and fail to pay the price of its violation. The story moves consistently through a maze of heroic incidents to a logical and happy conclusion. The Hearst-Pathé news completes this banner bill for today and Saturday.

GOSHEN

An event that will ever be remembered was the family reunion held on Tuesday, August 20th, 1918, at the home of Deacon Nathaniel Manning, in Lebanon. The beauties of the perfect summer days of Goshen were desired for the occasion. All of the one family of children and grandchildren living were present. The pleasant hour of sociability spent at the Old New England Homestead was enjoyed by the eldest at 93 years to the babe in arms. Nearly all of the over three-score years of Nathaniel Manning's life had been spent at the old home where he was born, the fertile fields of the home farm consisting of 50 acres shows of care and thrift and enterprise. Mrs. Nathaniel Manning's maiden name was Miss Harriet D. E. Pember, of North Franklin. Of the seven children born to their union, six are now living, they being: Myron F. Manning, of Goshen; Willis O. Fuller, of Ridgefield; C. There are twenty-four grandchildren. At the noon hour the dinner horn was sounded and the family of forty-five people partook of the best of New England dinners ever served. Grace was said by Rev. Hollis A. Campbell. The two long tables were set under the shade of the handsome maples, where also was held the literary exercises of the afternoon. The one object that at once attracted attention and admiration was the large new flag that floated from the gentle breeze between the large maple trees. The program opened by all marching twice around in a circle double file and saluting the beautiful emblem of our country. The following program was listened to with much interest: Recitation, "The First Letter," by Miss Imogene Manning; Recitation, "The Other Little Girl," by Miss Harriet Manning; Remarks by J. A. Randall; Recitation, "Hats Off," by Roland Manning; Recitation, "Old Friends," by Charles Briggs; 2d. Recitation, "Who Can Tell," by Mrs. Reuben T. Manning; Pledge Exercise, by Misses Mildred and Arnold Manning; Recitation, "Never Say Fail," by Raymond Manning; Recitation, "The American," by Arthur Randall; Original Poem, "Hail To The Flag," composed and read by Miss Ethel Randall; Recitation, "My Pledge," by Nathaniel Manning; 2d. Recitation, "Belgium," by John Manning; Recitation, "A Tribute to Our President," by Miss Vera Briggs; Recitation, "Barbara's Farewell," by Miss Doris Briggs; Recitation, "The New Minute Man," by Mrs. Myron Manning; Recitation, "The United States of America," by Miss Alma Manning; Recitation, "The Little Girl That Likes to Wash Dishes," by Mrs. Ernest Manning; Recitation, "Here Comes The Flag," by Mrs. James R. Case; Remarks by Rev. Hollis A. Campbell. Among the invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Campbell, Miss M. A. Pember, Mrs. J. P. Manning, Mrs. B. Randall and Mr. Curtis, of Watertown, Conn.
